22 Friday

23

My dear Fanny I really am so teized by different things I scarcely know what I am doing I have destroyed your letter forgetting you wanted an answer about your Picture. I would have written yesterday but ~~somehow~~ thinking I remembered you were to be in town tomorrow I wanted to ask you to come here to morrow night and I would if I could go to town with you Monday morning this I am prevented from doing as my Aunt is staying here and should she remain I should not be able to give you a bed; but she may be gone and at all events I will send a note to you in Pomeroy Lane by the carrier tomorrow if you are in town I hope you will come if I am able to say in it that she is gone She talks of doing so most positively, but my Mother may persuade her to alter her mind — I shall send this to [redacted] Rooms in the greatest hurry.

tainly whether you may not be in town so in the letter to town tomorrow - I shall repeat all I have said to now: the reason I want you to come is that the Romays leave town next wednesday and they may come out on sunday though I know nothing about it as I am now expecting them but in consequence of a horrible train of mistakes which have nearly driven me mad, I am much afraid they will not come - You must come if you can at the the Abbeys cannot think it strange of your coming for so short a time if however I am prevented from seeing you the best Dress maker I know is Mrs Bell 62 Newman Street - Oxford Street - She is not very expeditious but as she cannot have much to do at this time of the year, if you fix your time she may let you have it in [redacted] you must

- if you prefer Mrs Morgan her direction is 37 St James's Place. St James's Street - but she is very expensive, you had better know the price in either case and I think it would be as well to mention my name -

Yours very affectionately Frances Brawne

My Brother Sister & my aunt will stay Maybe take it but I shall write again